Some conference pics!

Here a few pictures that were taken at the MySQL conference of the Phorum team in their natural stance. The "API master" T-shirt was a surprise gift that Thomas brought for me. I really like it a lot. The backside says "Beware of the API".

Q: Where can you find power sockets near chairs in a hotel?

A: Just find the Phorum team and you'll be within reach!

You all look so busy! Should we start a "Caption" thread?

Brian: "We need another key".

Maurice: "The glare from the lobby lights is too much!"

Thomas: "No! It won't be in this version, you'll need to write your own Mod for it".

Maurice: "Did someone say Mod?"

Brian: "Deal News has some Mods"

Thomas: "No! Its not supported".

All kidding aside, I hope you all had a great time. Its good to see everyone working one the best forum code anywhere. (bows to the masters).

Haha, that gave me a good laugh. Fun way to wake up on monday. And yes, I get all hyper when someone mentions "mod" ;-). Although ... didn't sleep at all because of the jet lag, but I did was in bed for a few hours, pretending that I was asleep. I look forward to more captions. And just tell me if the pics aren't inspiring enough. I might just have some more available on my harddisk.
