Crowdfunding for Phorum - Wordpress-PlugIn

Dear Phorum community!

Lets continue with Phorum! It's a wonderful light software and I will absolutely not switch to phbbb or something other complicated.

However, we should point out what resources are needed and how we get them. One way could be crowdfunding. I know this from other OpenSource projects and I know it can be successful.

So lets start now:

Step 1: What items have to be developed?

Step 2: What are the priorities of the items?

Step 3: How many does the first 5 items cost?

When we put this in a list and we start the crowdfunding.

What do you think?

Best regards,
Wolfgang

Crowdfunding?? Users can make a donation. A lot of donations means the developers can spent more time om phorum:)

You dont want to spent money? Donate the needed code.....

As far as I know, i haven't found the code to keep member data synchroon with wordpress. There are some ways to sync it, but i haven't tried it out for wp.

Mobile template? Yo can edit the template files?? So if you have an already working template,you "just" have to take alook in the "normal" template to see how to convert it. Should not be too difficult.

usually manuals are written by experts, so.....that's the reason why i do not understand the manuals)

Wordpress plugins add or change functionality to a wordpress site. Just about anything you can program outside of wordpress, you can likely come up with a way to integrate it into a wordpress site with a plugin or turn it into a plugin itself. Wordpress has much updated version to create a template. For more details visit at [\[www.sitewired.com\]](http://www.sitewired.com)

Yeah I love phorum and I still use it since more than 10 years ago: <http://forum.elivecd.org>

The only thing that I would need is good anti-spam system :) so reCaptcha (the only reliable and friendly captcha system) working back (v1 is deprecated)

I need a complete mobile template.

Just create a template using BootStrap or Zurb Foundation framework and it will be fully responsive forum. I was planning on creating such template using those frameworks but other project took priority so I have put it on the back burner.
